

You are receiving this message because you are enrolled in Business Law through RACTC. I hope you all had a wonderful summer and I am excited to have you in class! Please don't hesitate to ask questions as we go through the course. My contact information has been included below and on our class syllabus.

We begin our online classes Monday, August 19th and will follow the online center calendar (see attached). In this letter, I'll try to cover some basic info, but you will be receiving more emails with yet more info.

Class Syllabus

Make sure to read and understand the attached class syllabus.

Website for the Class

We will be using our Google Classroom for our learning module. If your school is already a Google school, please use this code to join our Classroom eb7doi. If you are not a Google school, you will need to contact Shelly Christensen at shelly.christensen@hebron.k12.nd.us to make your account to use our Google domain to log in.

- Website: <https://classroom.google.com/>
- Username: firstname.lastname@hebron.k12.nd.us
- Password: ractc20242025 (first log in and change)

Powerschool Login

You should be getting an email soon from the central office or your principal with your Powerschool login info so you can check your grades.

First Week

This first week, we want to make sure we have your correct emails and you can log into Classroom. Then we will spend a few days getting to know each other and the course requirements before we begin officially into the course.

Enjoy the semester,

Shelly Christensen aka Mrs. C.
